

2022 NURSE OF THE YEAR

Entry Form

Nurses play a vital role in the care and health services of our patients.

This year, in the lead up to World Thalassaemia Day and International Nurses Day on the 12th of May, we are calling on you to help us recognise and celebrate the devoted nurses who dedicate their lives to caring for our patients and their families. We see these tireless workers who provide high quality, respectful treatment, often in challenging circumstances and would like to say thank you - George Houssos, President.

YOU can nominate a nurse in your treatment centre, and say thank you for the work they do. Just tell us in 500 words or less, why you believe this nurse deserves to be recognised as our 2022 Nurse of the Year.

The winning nomination will be judged by a panel of consumers and announced on International Nurses Day:
May 12.

Please fill in the following:

Which best describes you?

- Thalassaemia patient
- Sickle cell patient
- Parent or carer

Why is this nurse, your nurse of the year? In 500 words or less:

Name of nurse you wish to nominate:

Treatment Centre / Hospital:

Your full name:

Contact number:

Please tick the box below if applicable:

I give permission for my nomination to be quoted in the Thalassaemia & Sickle Cell Society of NSW's social media, website or email, for the purpose of recognising the winner and promoting this initiative.

I wish to keep my name and associated details confidential.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Who can nominate a nurse?

Nominations will be accepted from thalassaemia, sickle cell and haemoglobinopathy patients, their carers and family members. We will also accept nominations from staff members who work with haemoglobinopathy nurses, however they cannot nominate themselves.

Will my nomination be confidential?

If you wish to keep your name and any personal details confidential, please tick our confidentiality box on the nomination form.

Can I nominate more than one nurse?

Of course! Share the recognition and fill out an individual nomination for each nurse. Unfortunately, we are unable to take nominations for 'teams' at this time.

Who is eligible?

Nominees must be a qualified individual currently employed as an enrolled or registered nurse in Australia, who works within haemoglobinopathy treatment.

I have a question or need further information

Please contact our President, George Houssos - president@thalnsw.org.au

Please send your nomination to Coordinator@thalnsw.org.au or PO Box M120,
Camperdown NSW 2050.
Nominations close 5pm - 30 April 2022.